

AspenTech Launches AspenTech Community

February 18, 2014

Online platform to exchange ideas and network with peers

BURLINGTON, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 18, 2014-- Aspen Technology, Inc. (NASDAQ: AZPN), a leading provider of software and services to the process industries, today launched the AspenTech Community, an online site dedicated to the global exchange of information and ideas.

Accessible directly from the Internet and through aspenONE® software, the AspenTech Community is an ideal forum to connect with peers, learn from subject matter experts, and tap a deep library of AspenTech content.

Connect. Discuss. Learn.

Process industry professionals will be able to use the community for the following activities:

- Blogs – Contributed by AspenTech subject matter experts, blogs provide perspective and commentary designed to stimulate new ideas and conversation.
- Discussions – The core of a vibrant community, the discussion board will host open conversations around industry segments, AspenTech products, and user forums including the OPTIMIZE customer conference. Members can also initiate discussions on their topics of interest.
- Resources – The community provides access to a deep library of AspenTech resources that includes whitepapers, product guides, journal articles and technical manuals. Visitors may register for AspenTech events including webinars, tradeshow, and conferences.

The community complements other AspenTech social media channels including LinkedIn, Facebook, Twitter, and Weibo. To access the AspenTech Community, visit: www.aspentech.com/community.
